About El Sistema

El Sistema is a program that fosters community building through music. Jose Antonio Abreu, a musician and economist developed El Sistema in 1975. His intention was to nurture children living in poverty, and to give them a sense of belonging and responsibility. The life-long social and academic skills learned through music, would allow impoverished children the opportunity to grow and live as responsible, prosperous citizens. Today, El Sistema, serves over 700,000 children worldwide. There are over sixty El Sistema programs in the United States.

Our goal for the Greater Milwaukee El Sistema in Waukesha, is to make music education possible for all children in our community. We aspire to build positive, responsible citizens in a loving and nurturing atmosphere. We encourage positive development among the members of the orchestra and their families, through music instruction, community building activities, responsibility to the ensemble and performance experience. We believe that this builds an energetic, passionate, dedicated and enthusiastic community.

Musical Instruction

Greater Milwaukee El Sistema is a program that begins in grade K4. Children study up to three days per week after school. They begin with musicianship and movement skills that develop their ability to move freely and expressively to music and learn the music notation system of pitch and rhythm. After several weeks they are introduced to their instruments and receive instruction from highly trained professionals. Beginning with simple arrangements of classical music, the children learn the melodies and harmonies of the world's finest and most beautiful music.

The basis of all El Sistema programs lie in orchestral training in music, in building a feeling of community responsibility and pride. From the beginning, public performances for parents, community, and peers are a central component of the learning process, and strong feelings of accomplishment and belonging are instilled and nurtured all along the way. Greater Milwaukee El Sistema programs will change the lives of our young people throughout the city and bring newfound confidence, success, and joy to untold numbers of individuals.

Student and Family Commitment

Students will quickly learn that they are responsible to contribute their individual best to their El Sistema community. This means showing respect for the teachers, themselves and other students in the program. As a member of El Sistema, it is expected that students will attend rehearsals and classes regularly, demonstrate appropriate care of their instruments, and practice daily. It is through appropriate conduct, self-discipline, practice and respect that students are able to fully contribute as members of the El Sistema Community.

Families are expected to support their children. Please allow time for practice and express an interest in your student's work and musical development. Patience and encouragement will ensure that students are receiving the support they need to blossom as fine musicians and members of the community.

We encourage parents and extended families are asked to be involved in El Sistema as much as possible. Opportunities for involvement include, attending community nights and concerts, encouraging performances at home and attending rehearsals. Family involvement is key to building a positive community that is enjoyed by all.

Practice

Daily practice is required in addition to attending El Sistema classes and rehearsals. Begin with small amounts of time, 10 to 15 minutes for beginners, and increase the time as your musician's experience grows. Ask your child questions about the music, perhaps have them teach you! Practice should extend the joy of being a part of El Sistema, so please be patient and encourage your students. Each small concept takes time to master and is truly a great accomplishment for each child.

Students and their parents/guardians will be expected to keep a daily practice journal with weekly reflections about the music, their class experience and home practice habits. Students are given the opportunity to present their journals in class and share their reflections about El Sistema. Parents are invited to share how the El Sistema program experience benefits their family.

Student Conduct and Incentives

We believe that attitude is everything. Positive conduct is an essential part of being an El Sistema member contributing to the orchestra. Students will love being a part of El Sistema, and will soon learn that El Sistema a place where learning and joy go hand in hand. We care about what is going on in our student's lives and want to help them grow.

Students will have the opportunity to earn incentives for positive behavior and musical growth through our "Sistema Stars" program. Other incentives include the opportunity to perform solos for their peers, at a concert or special community event. We want to encourage students by showing them that their hard work and personal responsibility brings positive rewards.

Instrument Use and Care:

Parents must sign a rental agreement for use of our instruments.*

Instruments will be turned-in at the end of the Spring Session for maintenance.*

Rental is available for students who wish to keep their instruments for the summer.*

Parents will be charged rental and overdue fees for Instruments not returned at the designated return date. Instruments not returned after notice will be collected by a representative of El Sistema.*

Please treat these instruments with care, they belong to El Sistema.

This instrument has been carefully constructed and completely adjusted by expert string technicians. Proper care will reward you with maximum performance.

- Release hair tension on bow after use. Hair left tight will result in over-stretching.
- Rosin dust should always be removed from the instrument and strings after use. To maintain the instrument's finish and for the removal of heavy rosin deposits, clean with a high-quality string instrument product.
- Tension pegs should only be adjusted by teacher or repairperson. Do not over-tighten. If pegs slip, have checked by repairperson.
- Have your bridge checked frequently by an orchestra teacher or qualified string repairperson for correct position and angle; incorrect angle may result in damage to instrument and shorten bridge life.
- String adjusters (fine tuners) should not be allowed to touch the top of the instrument.
- Apply rosin to your bow before use (6 to 10 strokes) or as instructed by your orchestra director.
- Do not handle bow hair.
- Never leave your instrument in a hot or cold car; an instrument left in any excessive heat or cold can become damaged.
- Keep instrument and bow in a securely closed case to avoid damage.
- Report any problems with this instrument to El Sistema Staff.
